

CALL FOR STUDENTS' MOBILITY IN ACADEMIC YEAR 2019-2020

The Faculty of Agriculture and Veterinary of the University of Prishtina (FAV-UP) announces a call for applications for students' mobility. The call is open for the students from Agribusiness and Food Technology, Animal Sciences and Plant Sciences.

This mobility falls under Key Action 2 of the current IBC-M Erasmus + Project "Creating Theory to Practice Centers for Innovation and Employment". It is student exchange opportunity with the Geisenheim University from Germany, FAV-UP project partner. More information about this partner can be found under the link: <https://www.hs-geisenheim.de/en/>. All lectures and seminars at Geisenheim University do have a strong practical orientation and include work in tasting rooms or labs.

This call is opened for 1 student for a period of 3 months and start date for the exchange would be 1st November 2019.

All costs for completing mobility abroad will be covered by ERASMUS+ grant.

In order to apply for exchange, IBC-M student must:

- have completed minimum the second year of study for bachelor students or first year of study for master students;
- have timely and constant payment of tuition fees (all debts should be covered before going abroad);
- have good academic standing (cumulative semester grade of at least 8.00);
- have knowledge of the English language (B2 level);
- demonstrate cross-cultural competencies.

Internal selection will be completed at IBC-M and will be based on:

- Letter of motivation (20%);
- Cumulative average grade (worth 50%)
- English language knowledge (worth 30%).

Students who did not have a chance to participate in the exchange programs previously are highly encouraged to apply and will have priority during selection process.

Application & selection process

Application deadline is Monday 22<sup>d</sup> July 2019 until 4pm the latest. Applicants should send Letter of motivation (one A4 page max) to Prof. Dr Hysen Bytyqi at: hysen.bytyqi@uni-pr.edu

IMPORTANT: Motivation letter should be sent to FAV-UP as you have to apply directly to FAV-UP first where internal selection will be completed. After selection is done, FAV-UP must nominate student to receiving partner institutions, Geisenheim University in this case.
